

October 30, 2021 - “Return to the Big Four”

Come along for a scenic trip from Cincinnati, OH to Greensburg, IN and return. This route was originally built for the Cleveland, Cincinnati, Chicago and St. Louis Railway, also known as the Big Four Railroad. In 1906, the Big Four was acquired by the New York Central Railroad, which operated it as a separate entity until around 1930. The Big Four's lines were later incorporated into Penn Central in 1968 with the merger of New York Central and the Pennsylvania Railroad. Penn Central declared bankruptcy in 1970, and in 1976 many of Big Four's lines were included in the government-sponsored Conrail. Along the way we will travel through the towns of Cleves, Morris, and Batesville. While in Greensburg, passengers will be allowed to disembark the train for a 2 hour layover. Limited dining options are available within walking distance in Greensburg. . We will have full concessions with a wide array of options available for purchase in our concession car.
