NRHS “YouTube Channel” Available at www.nrhs.com

By Marlin Taylor, Film & Slide Archival Committee

NRHS

Have you heard ... the Society's YouTube channel is now easily accessible from NRHS.com?

Simply go to the Home Page, scroll down on the right side. Under Our Programs you will find a link named Our YouTube Channel and click on it.

You will be transported to an ever-growing list of historic 16mm and 8mm films which have been restored and digitally scanned for preservation and your edification! Please note that what you will find here is mostly not finished and narrated presentations ... this is raw footage shot by railfans like you from days past.

Grants – Where Does Your Money Go?

By Eric Fogg, Iowa Chapter NRHS.

The National Railway Historical Society has a simple mission: the preservation of and education about railroad history. With that as a guide, since 1991 we've awarded 398 grants totaling over $1,200,000 to worthy nonprofit organizations who feel the same way we do.

Donate to the NRHS - You make a difference

Also in the issues.....
